Eastern Slave Route Tour

Ghana, formerly the Gold Coast, was the center of the slave trade for almost 150 years. Western traders brought ships loaded with manufactured goods to exchange for slaves. Many of the historic forts and castles built by Europeans that bear witness to the dark history of the transatlantic slave trade are still visible in Ghana today. This groundbreaking tour was put together by HACSA to highlight the historical links between Denmark, Osu, the Akwamu State and the US Virgin Islands.

Tour sites include:

- Osu Christiansborg Castle and Gardens
- Wulff House/ Nii-Okantey Shikatsé We
- Historical Tamarind Tree/ Awusantso
- Shai Hills Historical Caves
- Volta River Boat Ride
- Akwamuman Royal Palace

Northern Nature & Cultural Tour

Tamale, the third largest city in Ghana, is the nerve centre of all commercial activities in the Northern Sector of Ghana. The city still features some traditional architecture of round huts with conical thatched roofs. It features the largest game reserve in West Africa and is renowned for its traditional mosques and rich handicrafts.
